

Wedding Illustration Services

How can you make your wedding day extra special for your loved ones and those who come to celebrate you on the most important day of your life?

Stephanie Fowler is a fashion illustrator with over ten years of experience rendering the human figure in a stylish and playful manner.

The set up:

You provide a table for me to set up with room to spread out finished illustrations. I may require a spot to grab clean water, and come with my own light to paint by - although a spot with good lighting is always appreciated.

I'll have guests pose for a quick photo for me, and then they are free to enjoy the party as I sketch away and bring them to life in illustrated form. I provide all paper and paint for sketching guests, as well as envelopes for guests to take home their illustration.

The specifics:

- Guests are sketched on a first come, first serve basis
- The client is responsible for any additional embellishment of wedding paper for favours. If you require embossing, we can meet several weeks prior to your big day to arrange the hand off of paper. If you would like to have custom stickers or a stamp made, I am happy to add this to the back of each illustration as it is completed.
- Artist and client agree beforehand on guests who cannot be served - they may be finished at later date for a reduced rate.
